Reimagining Operations
with Simplicity

Tech Mahindra

E2E Network Systems Consolidation & Optimization for UK-based telco enterprise

By making workflows ready for the future

Next-generation Workflow Management Tool (NGWFMT) for automated planning

New, combined inventory system deployed called SRIMS (Service & Resource Inventory Management System)

Single catalog for service and resource management using IETF's YANG data model and TOSCA, an open source orchestration data modelling language developed by OASIS

Next-generation service activation engine (NGAE), a cross-domain, model-driven and network-aware activation tool

And giving them a competitive edge

Real time inventory database

Data driven agile OSS to effectively manage capacity

Achieved NetDevOps through various open frameworks and APIs

Stakeholder management to implement cultural change that is agile

70% reduction in network planning time

Multi Million CAPEX savings & ability to delay investment decisions closer to capacity addition

Optimized workflows and Integrated Applications